Mr. Effa Manley
71 Crawford Street
Newark 2, New Jersey

Dear Mr. Manley:

Acknowledgement is made of your letter of July 17, 1944, for 16 men of the Newark Eagles Baseball Club, arriving Sunday, July 23, 1944. There is a shortage of rooms over the week end but I will make every effort to accommodate your baseball team. This is not a positive assurance of reservations but a tender of good will in making an effort to house these men on Sunday.

Sincerely yours,

W.S. Bunker
